

Experience of Care

Have you used mental health services in Birmingham or Solihull?

We want to hear about your experience!

By participating in the experience of care campaign your voice will provide insight into the experience of communities across Birmingham and Solihull when accessing and receiving mental health support.

Help inform service improvements and priorities.

For further information on the Experience of Care Campaign or to have your say!

Email:
Experienceofcarebsol@rethink.org